

Salina Public Library Art Exhibition Policy

Selection: Artists should provide a website or digital images of their work for review.. Applications to exhibit will be taken year round. The library also reserves the right to invite artists for exhibits.

Space: Appears in 40-by-17-foot space with coffee shop with tables and chairs; Two-dimensional pieces will hang on 25-by-4.5-foot wall covered with ribbed felt. Lighting includes natural light from skylights plus miniature, adjustable spotlights.

Exhibits: Exhibits will be for four weeks. Artists must provide enough original pieces to aesthetically fill the exhibit space. Artists are responsible for selecting and installing their work. Artists should be aware that the library is a public place serving children and adults and select pieces accordingly. The library will provide signage. Artists should provide a list one week before the show with title, media and price (if for sale). It also may include a description or explanation of the work.

Artist's Reception: A reception for the artist will be given on the first Friday of the month after the show is installed. Receptions will be held in conjunction with First Friday Live, and will typically be held from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the gallery. Refreshments will be provided by the library.

Artwork may be for exhibit only or for sale. The Business Office will receive and hold cash or checks made out to the artist. Artwork will remain on display through the end of the exhibit. The artist receives 100% of sales.

Liability: The library's insurance will cover theft or damage.
